Chairman
President
Senior Director
Executive Director
General Affairs Department
Handles the Foundation's general information and reception, board meeting logistics, human resources, recruitment and training, and secretarial operations of the Chairman, President, and Senior and Executive Directors.
Accounting Department
Responsible for the preparation of the Foundation's budgets and settlement of accounts, monetary and other disbursements, receipts and safekeeping, and the acquisition and management of Foundation assets.
Executive Director
Communications Department
Disseminates information regarding the Foundation's grant programs and other acitivities using websites, blogs, social media, and streaming video, as well as via newspaper and magazine advertisements and other publicity.
Social Innovation Program Division
Planning Department
Responsible for the planning and formulation of general strategies and policies related to the Foundation's projects, as well as new projects, overall coordination across divisions, and integrated project management.
Executive Director
Ocean Affairs Division
Involved in projects in Japan and overseas related to the ocean, including maritime issues, shipping, and maritime safety, as well as lending to shipbuilders.
Executive Director
Public Service Projects Division
Involved in public service projects in Japan in areas including social welfare, education, culture, tourism, and physical education.
Executive Director
International Projects Division
Involved in public service projects outside Japan in areas including social welfare, education, culture, and physical education.
Executive Director
Special Projects Division
Responsible for overall coordination of major overseas initiatives, planning for overseas public relations, and the planning and implementation of other designated projects.
Executive Director
Partnership Development Division
Receives contributions, partners with companies, and works to encourage a donation colture in Japan.
Program Evaluation Department
Evaluates and audits supported projects.