Response to Typhoon Hagibis

Typhoon Hagibis, the season's 19th typhoon, passed through Japan on October 12-13. The typhoon, considered the strongest to strike Japan in decades, brought record rainfall and caused major damage across a wide area in the Tokai, Kanto, Koshinetsu, and Tohoku regions, taking the lives of more than 80 people. The Nippon Foundation is dispatching NGOs and volunteer organizations to the affected areas, and is collecting donations for these recovery activities. We ask for your support.
